

Ways to Give

Gifts may be directed to any fund. Many donors choose to create a fund in their families' name or to benefit a specific cause or organization.

Cash Gifts	Simplest and most convenient option Qualifies for maximum deductibility for income tax purposes Online gifts are accepted on the NCCF website
Appreciated Securities	Easily transacted Often offers substantial tax savings Tax deduction based on fair market value on date of transfer No income tax on appreciation
Bequests	Through a will Deductible for estate and inheritance tax purposes.
Retirement Plan Accounts	Avoid excess taxes levied upon heirs Both heirs and community benefit
Charitable Remainder & Annuity Trusts	Name the NCCF as the ultimate beneficiary You direct in the trust instrument how the assets of the gift will be distributed to the NCCF for use
Life Insurance	Name the NCCF as the owner & beneficiary of an existing or new life insurance policy You receive an immediate tax deduction All premium payments thereafter are also deductible
Memberships	Assures that maximum dollars are available for grant making Individual Membership - A minimum of $100 each year Businesses Membership - A minimum of $200 each year

Contact the office to review any of the giving options listed above. We are available to work with donors to meet your charitable goals.

212 Lake Shore Drive West, Dunkirk, NY 14048
716-366-4892 • nccf@nccfoundation.org
www.nccfoundation.org

Excellence. Accountability. Impact.™